

BIODATA

John Stefanac
Vice President
Nokia Networks, Asia Pacific

John Stefanac is the Vice President of Nokia Networks, Asia Pacific. Appointed in April 2004, John is responsible for managing Nokia Networks' business with operators in Indonesia, Thailand, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand and Singapore.

John has over 20 years of experience in the IT and telecom industry where he joined Nokia from Flextronics Network Services where he was Vice President, Sales and Business Development, Asia Pacific. In this role, he played an important part in developing Flextronics Network Services' market share in the region by securing several new customers in the region

Prior to joining Flextronics, John spent 11 years with Lucent Technologies in various Sales and Business Development roles in Australia and throughout the Asian region.

Born in Australia in 1961, John is currently finalizing his MBA from Henley Management College, United Kingdom. Based in Singapore, John is married with two children.